A. E. HOGUE mining engineer, and member of the Discoverers Finance Corporation Ltd. of London England, and other companies arrived on last train on a short visit through the district. Mr. Hogue was on his way to the Kootenay to discover, as he says, "some proposition out of which money can be made by the investment of money," but on account of the wash out on the C. P. R. west of Calgary he was compelled to lay over and decided to put in the time by a trip north and incidentally to investigate Saskatchewan black sand. "The nearer I get to the Kootenay," said Mr. Hogue, "the less alluring the prospect is as the reports of its richness and possibilities decrease in enthusiasm the farther I get away from England and nearer I get to it." Mr. Hogue expressed his surprise at the warm weather which we have here as he said, it is thought in England that the weather is always cool, if not cold, in Canada.

R. C. JONES of Perry, Oklahoma, better known throughout the Western States as "Buffalo" Jones, arrived on Tuesday's train on his way to the far north. Mr. Jones received this prefix to his name from the fact of his being a well known big game hunter and having purchased from Bedson, of Stany Mountain the herd of buffalo which he is preserving in a private park as a relic of a breed now practically extinct. Mr. Jones left on Saturday for the north, his first objective point being Fort Smith and from there he intends to go into the practically unexplored "beyond." His immediate mission is to discover what possibilities there are to secure live specimens of animals which will soon be extinct, such as the musk-ox, and if the project is at all possible a ranch to establish at some point in the north for the preservation of these rare animals which Mr. Jones brought with him was a pair of blankets woven entirely from buffalo hair.

DINED.

One of the most pleasant and successful social gatherings of the year was held at the Alberta on Friday night, the occasion being a dinner given by Mayor McDougall to the mounted police of G division, the executive committee of the celebration here, and the presidents of the local national societies, and friends.

Over seventy guests sat down to a splendid dinner served in the Alberta's well known style and needless to say, the delicacies provided received their due attention.

After the luncheon had been disposed of, Mr. McDougall made a few well placed remarks stating that he had decided, on thinking the matter over, that such a demonstration as we had had here for the last four days, was worthy of a fitting finale. Our demonstration was, undoubtedly, the largest and most successful of any held between Winnipeg and the coast, and for its success we are largely indebted to the mounted police of G division, in general, and their splendid band in particular. Mr. McDougall's remarks received a hearty applause as also did the many other kind and well deserved words of praise not only for the police who so kindly lent their assistance, but also to the sisters from the convent here, and the mission at St. Albert, the different societies who participated and the many schools which lent their aid to make the procession a success.

Short speeches were made by Commissioner Herchner, who with Supt. Burnett, was one of the guests of the evening, expressing his pleasure at the good will existing between his men of G division and the citizens of Edmonton; by the representatives of the different national societies and by Major Griesbach, who, on behalf of the police of his division, thanked their host and the other speakers of the evening for the good will and friendship they had shown for, and the praise they had bestowed on the men under his command.

Many good songs were sung and stories told until midnight when the health of the host was proposed and "He's a jolly, good fellow" sung with enthusiasm, and followed by three cheers and a tiger, after which the national anthem was sung, bringing to a pleasant close the last act in Edmonton's memorable celebration of Victoria's jubilee.

SESSION NOTES.

OTTAWA, June 19, '97.

The supplementary estimates for the year ending 30th June, 1898, were brought down last night. They amount to $1,360,215. The Northwest government gets an addition to its subsidy of $40,000, and $5,000 for aid to schools in unorganized districts.
$2,519 is provided to pay the balance of the Alberta-election accounts allowed by the auditor general; $2,500 to pay claims outstanding in connection with the sale of certain lands in the town of Banff made in 1878; $5,630 to provide gratuities to retiring officers of the Indian department in Manitoba and the Northwest Territories; $2,000 to repair the buildings of the McDougall orphanage; $550 to fence post office property at Calgary, and $800 to fence the court house there; a further appropriation of $25,000 for immigration expenses; $20,000 towards the cost of the Hudson's Bay expedition; $36,500 to defray the expenses of the Alaska boundary survey between Canada and the United States; $5,000 to provide for the payment of gratuities to temporary employees of the outside service of the department of the interior; $907 to provide for gratuity and pension to the widow and children of the late Ernest Grundy, who was shot by Almighty Voice at Duck Lake. The pension will be about $275 a year.

Casey's bill to compel railway companies to carry bicycles as baggage was thrown out by the Senate railway committee. Consequently it is killed for this session, through the joint influence of the C. P. R. and the G. T.
R. companies.

The nays in the vote on the fast Atlantic service were:

Liberals—Cameron, McMillan, Somerville, McDonald, (Huron), Ellis, Stubbs, Richardson, Oliver, Erb, Ratz, Meigs, Graham, Burnett, Conservatives—Wilson, Hale, Robertson.
Patrons—Tolmie, Douglas, Rodgers, Pettit—21.

Owing to the count out of the railway committee on Thursday morning, the Columbia & Western charter is dropped for this session, as well as the bonus of $8,000 a mile which was expected to go with it.

The controller of inland revenue has introduced a bill to permit the importation of coal oil to Canada in tank cars and vessels, notwithstanding the cartoons, editorials and correspondence of the Globe protesting against such a course. The bill has not yet been considered, and no doubt every effort will be made by the Canadian oil men either to defeat it, or to destroy its utility. It is estimated the privilege of importation in tank cars will reduce the cost of coal oil to the western consumers more than the amount of the duty.

A return laid on the table of the House shows that 28 dismissals have taken place in the Indian department, and 31 in the interior since Mr.
Sifton took office.

Notice has been given that the government will ask power to borrow $15,000,000 to meet outstanding liabilities and prospective expenditure.

Hon. Mr. Sifton has gone to Manitoba in connection, it is supposed, with the final settlement of the school question.

A Winnipeg deputation, consisting of James H. Ashdown, was here a few days ago, protesting against the terms of the Crow's Nest Pass railway bill, in that the interests of Winnipeg were ignored in the prospective reduction of rates. It is said that Mr.
Ashdown was pacified by assurances from the C. P. R. company that, although it was not so nominated in the bill, Winnipeg would receive such corresponding reduction as would place it on equal terms with eastern wholesale cities for the western trade.

Sir Charles Tupper left for London, Eng., last night. A very large portion of the members have gone home, leaving a very thin House to conclude the business of the session.

On Thursday the remaining items of the tariff were considered, and still further changes made. The duty on coal was reduced from 60 to 53 cents per ton. A lengthy and exciting debate took place in regard to the proposal to put corn on the free list.
This was opposed very strongly from the opposition side of the House on the ground that the importation of corn as cheap food for cattle and hogs would displace an equal amount of oats, peas and barley, and thereby reduce the prices of these products of Canadian farms. On the government side it was argued that corn, being cheaper and more nutritious than any of the coarse grains of Canada, it would be profitable to the farmers to sell their coarse grains and buy corn, it being asserted that the surplus coarse grains went to England, and that the prices did not depend upon local consumption. While the question was to a great extent a party one, it was plain that there was a division of interest between the localities which raised grain, who wanted the duty, and the localities which did not, who in many cases wanted the duty removed; further it existed between the class of farmers who raised grain only and who wanted the duty, and those who feed cattle and wanted it off. The lumber interests, as represented by Mr. Mackie, liberal, and Mr. Kaulbach, conservative, also favored free corn; while John Charlton, liberal, free trader and pro-American, declared in favor of the duty on corn as a retaliatory measure, although he too is a lumberman. The resolution in favor of free corn was carried by a majority of two to one.

On Friday, Sir Charles Tupper discussed the Royal military college, Kingston, and objected to the proposed reduction of the time from four to three years, and of the fees per annum from $450 to $250. These reductions are made with the view of saving in the expenses of the college to the amount of about $5,000 a year. Sir Charles held that to reduce the efficiency of the tuition at the college was to practically render any expenditure upon it useless. On the other hand, it was argued that the expense entailed was greater than the benefits derived, and that it was necessary for the government to reduce the expenditure, if the college were to remain in existence at all.

The postmaster general introduced a bill which contained a provision that, in case he was not satisfied with tenders received for any mail contract, he could refuse them, and accept a smaller amount for the service than the lowest tender, when it could be so arranged. In support of this proposition he claimed that a combination between those who were in a position to tender for small mail contracts was often made for the purpose of keeping the prices higher than the service warranted, and he proposed to take this means of protecting the public interests. The opposition held that to adopt such a measure would be to practically destroy the effect of the system of tendering. On the suggestion of Sir Richard Cartwright, the bill was withdrawn.

The Crow's Nest Pass resolutions came up on Friday evening. Mr.
Blair presented the case on behalf of the resolutions. He did not discuss the merits of the so-called concessions, nor the question of railway monopoly.
He rested his whole case on the necessity of opening up the mining country of British Columbia, and the profit that would accrue to the business of the Dominion from the development consequent on railway facilities being extended. Sir Charles Tupper supported the resolution very strongly, and spoke against government construction, to which he declared himself unalterably opposed. Sir Richard Cartwright followed, and showed that the bargain made by the present government was better than the one proposed to be entered into by the late government. J. Ross Robertson attacked the bargain in the strongest terms as being an unwarranted deal with the C. P. R. for the perpetuation of monopoly in the west.
Mr. Bostock supported the resolutions on the ground of the local necessity for the construction of the railway.
Mr. Oliver supported the construction of the road; but claimed that greater benefits would have resulted from construction under government control than under C. P. R. control, inasmuch as government construction would have meant the breaking of railway monopoly in the Northwest, while C.
P. R. construction meant the perpetuation of that monopoly. Mr.
Foster criticised the terms of the bargain, but supported the proposition to build the road immediately by agreement with the C. P. R. company.
Mr. Poupore (conservative), strongly supported the deal. Mr. McInnes (Vancouver) opposed the bargain, and declared himself in favor of government construction. Fair consideration was not given the coast cities in regard to their trade in Kootenay, either in the extension of the railway, or in the concessions as to rates. He moved an amendment that similar reductions in rates to those given eastern trade to Kootenay should be given to the trade of the coast cities going east. Mr. Blair promised consideration of the matter with the C.
P. R. authorities. Mr. Foster opposed this, and threatened Mr. McInnes that if he tried to get the terms of the bargain amended, the bill would not go through this year. Mr. McInnes said he was prepared to accept the responsibility. Mr. McInnes also moved a resolution that no Japanese or Chinese should be employed upon the construction of the road. This was negatived by the committee, and the resolutions were declared carried without a division in a house of not less than 100, the large majority of the members having already gone home.

The house will probably prorogue on Wednesday.

THE KINGSTON PENITEN- TIARY COMMISSION.

During the debates last Monday the matter of the investigation at the Kingston penitentiary was brought up and discussed.

The solicitor general said that the dismissed officials of the penitentiary, charged with dishonesty, would be given a chance to explain either before a commission or a criminal court where they would be placed on trial.
He gave as an instance, a pump costing $908 had been charged up against the government for $2,200 and the pump had never been used. St.
Vincent de Paul penitentiary is now being investigated.

Hon. G. E. Foster approved of bringing dishonest officials to punish-

GREECE AND TURKEY.

Athens, June 20.—It is reported here that Emperor William has sent a telegram to the Sultan, requesting him to take measures for the speedy evacuation of Thessaly. No indication of any settlement has yet been reached in the peace negotiations.
There was a conflict yesterday at Hierpetra on the Island of Crete between insurgents and inhabitants of the town, and an Italian gunboat fired two shots into the town.

MR. DEAN DISCOURSES.

Portage la Prairie, June 21.—Last evening at the Methodist church here the pastor, Rev. G. W. Dean, in the course of an eloquent discourse upon "Sin" referred at great length to the terrible tragedy recently enacted in this town. The reverend gentleman urged that citizens should protest against the sale of revolvers, which were of no use except for men who were desirous of destroying something.
Citizens should also protest against the sale of such dangerous weapons and the law should likewise interfere.

LONDON'S GREAT PROCESSION.

A telegraphic special to the Calgary Herald gives the following interesting report of the great jubilee parade in London.

The last stroke of 12 had not died away on the midnight air when from a hundred metropolitan steeples a tumultuous peal of bells announced the diamond jubilee. The vast crowds which filled miles of streets and squares answered with ringing cheers and here and there the singing of "God Save the Queen."

The march began at 8:45 and the great cortege proved a welcome relief to the waiting multitudes.

For the colonies there were living pictures presenting in a tangible shape the growth of the Empire and of the far reaching extent of the Queen's sway. The procession, after some police, was headed by an advance party of Royal Horse Guards, then followed the band of the same corps playing the inspiring "Washington Post March," by Sousa. Next came Lord Frederick Roberts commanding the Colonial troops. Then the Canadian Hussars, Dragoons and Northwest Mounted Police.

Close upon the band came the picturesque Northwest Mounted Police in their uniform as an escort to the first colonial premier, who was to win a great round of cheers from the men and many a welcome waved by the women—the Right Hon. Sir Wilfred Laurier. He was an imposing figure in his new privy councillor's uniform, with gold lace in abundance and a peaked hat.

Lady Laurier was charmingly dressed and held in her hand a lovely bouquet of flowers. Both showed the keenest appreciation of the hearty reception from the crowd, Sir Wilfred raising his peaked hat again and again as cheers burst forth. It was one long triumphal march, with a reception such as no colonial statesmen ever received in England.

The Northwest Mounted police, to whom evidently the saddle had never been a novelty, made a striking appearance.

After this came the other colonial troops, who in turn, were followed by the second procession, which eloquently filled up the picture of Britain's war strength.

After the more than magnificently completed carnival of gorgeous costume and color in which the Empire had passed in review its army and navy, shown in its panoplied strength, the head of all was now to come, Her Majesty, and a cheer broke forth which seemed to shake the ground, and was renewed again and again as Her Majesty's carriage approached drawn by the famous eight Hanoverian creams. The Royal equipage was one glittering mass of splendor. Beside Her Majesty sat the Prince and Princess of Wales and other members of the Royal family. At St. Paul's Cathedral the Queen's carriage stopped and a simple service was gone through with. A Te Deum composed for the occasion was sung to the accompaniment of two military bands, and the chanting of "O Lord Save the Queen," to which the great choir in a wonderful volume of harmonious sound responded, "And mercifully hear us when we call upon Thee," was chanted by the great choir. Then amidst further ringing of bells the National Anthem was sung, and the booming of the tower guns firing a royal salute could be heard as the Queen drove on to other scenes.

At 2 o'clock Her Majesty entered the palace gates and a gun in Hyde Park announced to so much of the world as was not before the gates that the great procession was over.

A NEW HIGH COMMISSIONER.

The Free Press says that Sir Donald Smith's elevation to the peerage confirms the report of his prospective retirement from the high commissionship at a very early date. Sir Richard Cartwright will succeed him in London immediately. When Sir Wilfred Laurier returns to Canada there will be a reconstruction of the cabinet consequent upon Sir Richards removal to London. The department of trade and commerce will be merged into finance and full pay will be given to the ministers of customs and inland revenue.

THE PRINCE OF WALES AT SHORT RANGE.

George W. Smalley will contribute an article on "The personal side of the Prince of Wales" to the July Ladies' Home Journal. It is said that Mr. Smalley gives a uniquely interesting, close view of the Prince, touching in detail upon his great personal popularity in England, and the reasons therefor, his love of sports, his pastimes, his social duties and diversions, and showing him as an affectionate son, a devoted husband, a loving father and a brother.

GENERAL NEWS.

There is a great demand in the East for the new issue of postage stamps. In some of the Eastern Cities the rush was so great that the police had to keep the crowd in order. Some dealers are trying to buy all available stamps in order to get a corner on the market and sell at increased prices.

FROM THE FAR NORTH.

A public examination given by the pupils of the convent of St. Bernard's mission, Lesser Slave lake, took place on Friday, 11th June, in one of the rooms of the new convent. Sixty pupils were present, and surprised and interested the audience by their ready answers to the questions made them both in English and French, and by the execution of a long and interesting programme which consisted of songs, recitations, dialogues and addresses, given both in English and French and followed by a distribution of prizes among the successful contestants.

Rev. Father Falher presided over this little feast as His Lordship Bishop Chit and Rev. Father Desmarais had left for Edmonton a few days previous. He addressed a few words in French to the pupils and in Cree to the parents of the children.

Mr. Picard of Larue & Picard, Edmonton then made a few remarks in English, saying that three years ago on his way from Edmonton to Lesser Slave lake, a voyage which he had made with the Rev. Sisters, these latter had picked up thirteen children, one might say on the shores of the lakes, and recognizing some of them among the ranks he could hardly believe them to be the same children now able to read, write and speak English and French. He also told the children the Rev. Sisters were real mothers to them and that they should obey and respect them and by so doing they would acquire happiness during their school days as also in later years.

There were present at the examination the Rev. Fathers Falher and Laferriere, the brothers of the mission, Messrs. Picard, Hamilton, Gunn, MacDermot, Brisette, Tate and Provost, besides a large number of natives.

HIGH PRAISE FOR THE PREMIER.

Lord Farrer, who was president of the board of trade in Gladstone's government and is a high authority on trade and economics, regards the new Canadian tariff and Laurier's Liverpool speech as triumphs for free trade. "The value of Premier Laurier's proposal," he says, "is that it makes no retrograde step and violates no free trade principles. It is a step from protection towards free trade. It asks Britain to make no alteration in her fiscal system."

Lord Farrer thinks the German and Belgian treaties apply and if the Canadian proposals are accepted, it may become impossible to maintain these treaties. It will not be regretted if the Canadian proposal should lead Britain to reconsider the question of commercial treaties and return to the simple free trade policy of the Peel-Canadians, says his lordship. It may bring us to what may be an important new departure. It may prove to be the first step in the development of free trade in the colonies. Farrer opposed the commercial treaties with the colonies, which may become as convenient as treaties with foreign nations. The cause of free trade in the colonies is more likely to be served by complete commercial independence.

The Chronicle says Premier Laurier offers a nearer approximation to universal free trade than any one has devised till now.

ORANGEMEN UNSATISFIED.

The County Orange Lodge of Dufferin met in Roland last week and passed the following resolution denouncing the school settlement:

Be it resolved that this W. Co. lodge of Dufferin, at this its first opportunity, do hereby express our disapprobation of the so-called settlement of the school question, and denounce the same as a delusion and a snare, and altogether contrary to the protection pledges of the majority of the members of the provincial legislature, and totally contrary to the wishes of the great majority of the electors of this province, and particularly to those members of the orange association who pledged their support to the Greenway government on the distinct understanding that our system of national schools be left unaltered and unimpaired.

BARNATO'S SUICIDE.

The following details are at hand of the suicide of Barney Barnato. He had been in ill health for some months past, but seemed to improve after leaving Capetown, though he was never left alone, someone being continually detailed to watch him. He, however, seemed to improve and was in good spirits and walking up and down the deck leaning on a passenger's arm. Suddenly Barnato asked his companion to tell him the time. Before he received any reply he wrenched his arm away and jumped overboard. The fourth officer immediately jumped overboard after him, but failed to save the life of the South African speculator. Heavy seas were running and the Scott was steaming at the rate of 17 knots an hour. As soon as possible the steamer stopped. A life boat was lowered and pulled to the spot where the two men were last seen. The fourth officer was rescued in an exhausted condition, and later the body of Barnato was recovered floating head downward. His remains have been embalmed to be taken to England on board the Scott.

A Toronto exchange voices the sentiments of the West in the following paragraph: "The Dominion newspaper does not wear a uniform, but no sleeping car porter in the employ of the Grand Trunk or the C. P. R. is more entirely useful to the two great corporations."

BIRTHS.

McPherson—At Stony Plain, Tuesday 22nd, the wife of J. A. McPherson of a son.

MASONIC PARADE.

The masonic lodge here, together with their brethren from South Edmonton, held a church parade to All Saint's church last evening.

The procession formed, over sixty strong, at the Masonic hall and headed by the Edmonton band marched up the street to the church where an appropriate sermon, intently listened to, was preached by the Rev. W. R. Blackford, on "Faith, Hope and Charity." After the conclusion of the service the procession was reformed, the band in the front, followed by the Blue lodge with the North Star Chapter, No. 118, Royal Arch Masons in the rear, and returned to their hall, where the national anthem was played and the parade ended.

POLICE COURT.

A few nights ago a young man who was considerably puctuated was amusing himself by painting the town a crimson hue. On Thursday last he appeared before the bench who administered a reprimand and levied the usual fine and costs.

Alex. Jamieson, of Wetaskiwin, was arrested at South Edmonton on Saturday by the Northwest mounted police according to instructions contained in a telegram received from Wetaskiwin. The charge against the prisoner is one of aggravated assault on a man named Emery, at Wetaskiwin, who, it appears, had engaged the prisoner's wife as housekeeper, after she had been forced to part from her husband on account of family quarrels. Jamieson was brought over to this side and will go down to the scene of the fracas in the morning for a preliminary hearing on the charge.

JUBILEE CELEBRATION.

Owing to unavoidable circumstances a few omissions and errors were made in our last Thursday's report of the jubilee celebration here. The omissions we apologize for and the errors we will rectify.

One mile novice—Jardines, 1st, and F. G. Taylor, 2nd.

Quarter mile—W. A. Griesbach, 1st, and F. G. Taylor, 2nd.

In the gun club contest some of the events were not reported. Below is the complete list as they occurred.

RAILWAY SUBSIDIES.

Hon. Mr. Blair has given notice of railway subsidies aggregating $6,634,542. The only western subsidy is to the Ontario and Rainy River railway for 80 miles of line, from Port Arthur, Duluth and Western to Rainy Lake. The amount of subsidy is $3,200 a mile, but if the line costs more than $15,000 a mile, the government will pay half of the additional cost, provided the subsidy shall not exceed in all $6,400. The Duluth air line, and the Heinz scheme, B. C. and Western get nothing. The Rainy Lake road must be commenced in two years and completed in four.

There

is no use putting it off any longer as there will be nothing gained by it. If you need any goods of any description now is the time to buy them, and the only question to consider is, where are you going to buy them, where can you do the best and be sure of getting the best value for your money. . . .

This is both a wise and important matter to consider whether times are good or bad. In the opinion of a large number of the most prosperous people in the country, who are the shrewdest and most careful of buyers, McDougall's is the place the year round, in any kind of times, and no matter what is the size of your purse. No purchasers too small or none too large. One and all receive the very best of values, and they all come back for more.

The stock is now large and complete in all lines.
